THE UNITED STATES CHARGES:

At all times relevant to this Information, unless otherwise stated:

I. The Defendant and Relevant Individuals and Entities

1. Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. - Petrobras ("Petrobras") was a Brazilian state-owned and state-controlled oil company headquartered in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, that operated to refine, produce and distribute oil, oil products, gas, biofuels and energy. The Brazilian government directly owned more than 50 percent of Petrobras's common shares with voting rights. Petrobras was controlled by Brazil and performed government functions, and thus was an "agency" and "instrumentality" of a foreign government, as those terms are used in the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA"), Title 15, United States Code, Section 78dd-2.

2. Petroleos de Venezuela S.A. ("PDVSA") was the Venezuelan state-owned and state-controlled oil company. PDVSA and its subsidiaries and affiliates were responsible for exploration, production, refining, transportation and trade in energy resources in Venezuela. Among other products, PDVSA supplied asphalt to companies around the world and also provided funding for various operations of the Venezuelan government. PDVSA and its wholly-owned subsidiaries were “instrumentalities” of the Venezuelan government, as that term is used in the FCPA, Title 15, United States Code, Section 78dd-2(h)(2)(A). PDVSA officers and employees were “foreign officials,” as that term is used in the FCPA, Title 15, United States Code, Sections 78dd-2(h)(2) and 77dd-3(f)(2)(A).

3. Asphalt Company, the identity of which is known to the United States, was a company incorporated and based in the United States that was one of the largest asphalt providers in the world. Therefore, Asphalt Company was a “domestic concern,” as that term is used in the FCPA, Title 15, United States Code, Section 78dd-2(h)(1).

4. Asphalt Trading, the identity of which is known to the United States, was a company incorporated in the Bahamas and based in the United States that was one of a group of companies related to Asphalt Company. Asphalt Trading provided asphalt-related services to customers, including Petrobras. Asphalt Trading’s principal place of business was in the same location as Asphalt Company’s principal place of business in the United States. Therefore, Asphalt Trading was a “domestic concern,” as that term is used in the FCPA, Title 15, United States Code, Section 78dd-2(h)(1).

5. Asphalt Company Affiliate, the identity of which is known to the United States, was a company incorporated in Switzerland that was one of a group of companies related to Asphalt Company. Asphalt Company Affiliate had the same principals as Asphalt Trading and was incorporated after lending institutions withheld lines of credit from Asphalt Trading in or around 2012.

II. The Foreign Corrupt Practices Act

23. The FCPA was enacted by Congress for the purpose of, among other things, making it unlawful for certain classes of persons and entities to corruptly offer, promise, authorize or pay money or anything of value, directly or indirectly, to a foreign government official to secure an improper advantage for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business for, or directing business to, any person.

III. The Bribery Schemes

A. Brazil

24. In or about and between 2010 and 2016, the defendant DANIEL SARGEANT agreed with others, including Asphalt Trading Executive, Asphalt Trading Employee and Intermediary #1, to offer and pay bribes, through Intermediary #2, Intermediary

#3 and others, to foreign officials in Brazil on behalf of Asphalt Trading and associated companies so that they could obtain and retain business with Petrobras.

25. In furtherance of the scheme, the defendant DANIEL SARGEANT and others, including Asphalt Trading Executive, approved bribe payments to foreign officials in order to obtain and retain business for and on behalf of Asphalt Company, Asphalt Trading and Asphalt Company Affiliate.

26. In or about and between 2010 and November 2014, the defendant DANIEL SARGEANT and his co-conspirators, including Asphalt Trading Executive, Asphalt Trading Employee, Intermediary #1, Intermediary #2, Intermediary #3 and others, made and caused to be made bribe payments totaling more than $5 million to foreign officials in Brazil, including Petrobras Official #1, Petrobras Official #2, Brazilian Politician #1 and Brazilian Politician #2.

27. In furtherance of the scheme, among other things, the defendant DANIEL SARGEANT and his co-conspirators established shell companies in the Marshall Islands and caused corrupt payments to be made into, from and through bank accounts located in the United States and abroad, including bank accounts in Switzerland.

28. As a result of the bribery scheme in Brazil, Asphalt Company, Asphalt Trading, Asphalt Company Affiliate and others obtained numerous contracts with Petrobras with a total value in excess of approximately $185 million.

B. Venezuela

29. In or about 2012, the defendant DANIEL SARGEANT agreed with others, including Asphalt Company Employee, Asphalt Trading Employee and Intermediary #4, to offer and pay bribes to various PDVSA officials in order to, among other things: (a) purchase asphalt from PDVSA; (b) acquire inside, non-public information from PDVSA to obtain an improper advantage in the purchase and sale of asphalt; and (c) recover certain late fees, called demurrage fees, owed by PDVSA to Swiss Asphalt Company related to the loading of asphalt.

(a) 2012-2015: Bribes to Win Contracts

30. Following a dispute between PDVSA and Asphalt Company prior to 2012, PDVSA refused to sell asphalt to Asphalt Company or companies related to Asphalt Company. To circumvent this prohibition, Asphalt Company and Swiss Asphalt Company agreed that Swiss Asphalt Company would purchase asphalt from PDVSA at the request and direction of Asphalt Company and then resell that asphalt to Asphalt Company at a small premium.

31. In or about and between 2012 and 2015, the defendant DANIEL SARGEANT agreed with others, including Asphalt Company Employee, Asphalt Trading Employee and Intermediary #4, to offer and pay bribes to foreign officials, including PDVSA Official #1 and PDVSA Official #2, in order for Swiss Asphalt Company to obtain contracts for the benefit of, and on behalf of, Asphalt Company, Asphalt Trading and Asphalt Company Affiliate. Swiss Asphalt Company would then, in turn, resell asphalt to Asphalt Company, Asphalt Trading and Asphalt Company Affiliate.

32. In furtherance of the scheme, in or about and between 2012 and 2015, Asphalt Company and Asphalt Company Affiliate paid Intermediary #4 a commission, typically calculated on a per barrel basis, for asphalt that Swiss Asphalt Company purchased from PDVSA and provided to Asphalt Company. Intermediary #4 in turn paid a bribe to PDVSA Official #1, typically calculated on a per barrel basis, for the asphalt that PDVSA sold to Swiss Asphalt Company. PDVSA Official #1 shared a portion of those bribe payments with PDVSA Official #2.

33. In furtherance of the scheme, in or about and between 2013 and 2015, Asphalt Company and Asphalt Company Affiliate paid Intermediary #4 approximately $1.2 million, from which Intermediary #4 in turn made bribe payments to PDVSA Official #1 and PDVSA Official #2, and kickback payments to Asphalt Company Employee.

(b) 2015 - 2018: Bribes for Inside, Non-Public Information

34. In or about March 2015, PDVSA Official #1 stopped working at PDVSA and began working at a company that did business with PDVSA as a counter-party, buying and selling petrochemical products.

35. In or about and between March 2015 and April 2018, the defendant DANIEL SARGEANT agreed with others, including Asphalt Company Employee, Asphalt Trading Employee, Intermediary #4 and PDVSA Official #1, to offer and pay bribes to foreign officials, including PDVSA Official #3 and PDVSA Official #4, in order to obtain non-public information from PDVSA and to obtain a competitive advantage in obtaining and retaining business with PDVSA.

36. In furtherance of this scheme, among other things, PDVSA Official #1 and Intermediary #4 obtained non-public information from foreign officials, including PDVSA Official #3 and PDVSA #4, and provided it to Intermediary #4, who provided that information to Asphalt Company and Asphalt Company Affiliate.

37. In order to promote and conceal the scheme, with the approval of the defendant DANIEL SARGEANT, Intermediary #4 entered into a sham consulting agreement with Joint Venture, pursuant to which Intermediary #4 purportedly received a $2,000 monthly retainer.

(c) 2015 - 2018: Bribes to Recover Demurrage Fees

38. The contracts pursuant to which PDVSA agreed to supply Swiss Asphalt Company with asphalt called for financial penalties, called demurrage fees, in the event of delays by PDVSA in delivering and loading asphalt onto Swiss Asphalt Company's ships. Due to such delays in or about and between 2015 and 2018, PDVSA incurred more than $3 million in demurrage fees.

39. In or about and between March 2015 and 2018, the defendant DANIEL SARGEANT and others provided approval for Intermediary #4 to pay PDVSA Official #1 ten percent of any demurrage fees paid by PDVSA to Swiss Asphalt Company. The purpose of this payment was so that PDVSA Official #1 would in turn pay bribes to various PDVSA employees in exchange for their authorization of the payment of demurrage fees to Swiss Asphalt Company. Swiss Asphalt Company, in its role as a pass-through, then remitted a portion of the demurrage fees to Asphalt Company.

40. As a result of the scheme, Asphalt Company obtained approximately $250,000 in demurrage fees.
