Manuel Diego Aramburú Yzaga, Partner at Aramburú Castañeda Boero Abogados, Lima, Peru

I practice corporate law and arbitration. My native language is Spanish but I also speak fluent English. I went to Law School at Universidad de Lima where I graduated as an attorney in 1990, and I was admitted to practice law in 1992. After that I got an LLM degree from Columbia University. I have been a teacher of arbitration for more that 20 years I have taught in Universidad de Lima, Universidad San Martin de Porres and in the Graduate School of Universidad Peruana de Ciencias Aplicadas -UPC. I have been recognized as most in demand arbitrator in Perú by Chambers and Partners for years 2020 and 2021, and have also been recognized by Leaders League.

WHAT MAKES YOU STAND OUT AMONG OTHER ATTORNEYS?

My capability and desire to understand the business of my clients before giving any advice. I think that a corporate attorney can give better advice if he knows and understands the client's business.

MENTION SOME OF YOUR RECENT SUCCESSFUL REPRESENTATIONS

I am currently participating as local counsel in the de merger (separation) of one of the largest laboratories in the world. In arbitration I am participating in more that 40 arbitrations, national and international.

WHY DID YOU DECIDE TO PURSUE A CAREER IN LAW?

I have it in my family. My approach to law was because my grandfather was an attorney and my father is an attorney, therefore I had the opportunity to visits their offices since I was very young and understood that law was what I wanted.

WHAT ADVICE COULD YOU GIVE TO A YOUNG ATTORNEY?

To keep studying always. An attorney should never stop studying. Also to learn from the experience of the elders.

DO YOU HAVE ANY HOBBIES?

Yes, now I practice golf, and water ski. I used to practice equestrian sports (show jumping) and motorcycle off road.
